Anticipation is paper-cut artist, Lauren Iida's debut exhibition in Paris at Galerie Lee. Iida is a Japanese American visual artist from Seattle, Washington, USA. In this new series of original "paper cutaways," Iida recalls melancholy moments, intimate vignettes apparently frozen in time, from her long period of isolation in Cambodia during the height of the COVID 19 pandemic. Iida has resided in Cambodia for most of the last thirteen years where she mentors and represents contemporary Cambodian artists through Open Studio Cambodia. She is also a prolific public artist currently residing in Seattle, Washington.
